

To the Federal Communications Commission:

I do not feel that our communities are well-served by allowing the public airwaves to be manipulated for political gain. Allowing Sinclair stations to air programming like "Stolen Honor" is wrong. I encourage the FCC to protect our public interest and democracy from corporate journalism that is irresponsible. When democracy is at stake, public communication must be fair and accurate.

Thank you.

Martha Daniels